Ownership and access to personal (genetic) information in future healthcare

13:30  Introduction from the Co-Chairs:
Professor Hans-Peter Deigner
(Hochschule Furtwangen University and Fraunhofer IZI/EXIM, Germany),
Professor Christian Chabannon
(University of Aix-Marseille and Institut Paoli Calmettes, France).

13:45  Too much information? Decision-making in a world of big data.
Ms Marianne Talbot (Oxford University, UK).

14:15  Big genetic data: opportunities and threats.
Professor Johann Eder (Alpen Adria Universität Klagenfurt, Austria).

14:45  The role of information in future health care and its ethical implications.
Professor Martin Langanke (Faculty of Theology, Greifswald University, Germany).

15:15  Refreshments

15:45  Discussion session: audience participation welcomed.
Facilitators: Dr Balwir Matharoo-Ball (Nottingham Health Science Biobank, Nottingham, UK), Dr Zisis Kozlakidis (University College Division of Infection and Immunity, London, UK) and Dr Robert Hewitt (ESBB, Aix-en-Provence, France).

17:00  End of public lecture.

Book now by registering at: https://goo.gl/3MykZ7
Pay on the day: admission fee will be £15.
See www.ebb.org/london

Venue: Olympia Conference Centre, Hammersmith Road, Kensington, London W14 8UX.